

STATEMENT OF VALUES

The Social Science Centre is committed to taking positive action to fight unlawful discrimination in every respect of its work. We will work to ensure that all members receive equal access and treatment.

The Social Science Centre recognises the discrimination experienced by certain individuals and groups in society and as such actively works to eliminate all forms of discrimination by the removal of unfair mechanisms, prejudice and oppressive behaviour.

The Social Science Centre recognises that direct and indirect discrimination exists in our society. We believe that no-one should suffer oppression, bullying, harassment or lack of opportunity on the basis of their age, race, colour, gender orientation or reassignment, sexual orientation, marital status, ethnic or national origin, disability or any other factor, either directly or indirectly.

Management of The Social Science Centre

The Social Science Centre will be managed by consensus in the most open and democratic way possible.

The management of The Social Science Centre will take note of the views of all members.

The Social Science Centre believes that everybody has some contribution to make and efforts will be made to ensure that everybody can take part.

Further information can be found in our Constitution and FAQ
<http://socialsciencecentre.org.uk/>

29th May 2011.